

FRIENDS

Other Resources

Disaboom, Connecting the Millions touched by disabilities.

The online disability community you've been looking for: Disaboom! For people with disabilities, Disaboom's lifestyle articles, blogs, forums, and health information provide shared knowledge about SCI, cerebral palsy, fibromyalgia, multiple sclerosis, and other disabilities. Whether you're an amputee, caregiver, disabled veteran, or interested in exploring adaptive sports, accessible travel, or any other disability-related topic, welcome! <http://www.disaboom.com/>

Web Sites for Local Information

<http://calendar.boston.com/search?st=event&swhat=free>

This site has wonderful resources for you to choose from for outings and enjoyment. You can also pick a particular city or town you may be looking to have information to; it's not just for Boston.

www.townonline.com

Click on "Towns and Newspapers" located near the middle top of page. Then click on "Arts and Entertainment" click on "Travel New England get away" and you'll find lots of choices on these few pages.

www.goboston.com

This is a great page of resource information to review and assist you in making community plans with someone.

BostonOkay.com

Is a human edited directory of things to do in Boston, places to eat in Boston, and things to see in Boston.

www.bostoncentral.com

Lots of information on this page; on the left you can click on the city or town you are looking to find entertainment and make your choices then. They also offer a “Free Boston Family Activities Newsletter” you can obtain.