Dance Classes

<http://www.havetodance.com/studios.html>

This is a listing of dance studios and dance teachers in the Greater Boston area where you can learn swing, ballroom, and Latin dancing. There are also specialized pages for the Argentine Tango, Hustle and Tap Dancing. At the bottom of this page is a list of local free-lance dance teachers who are not associated with a particular dance studio.

If you are thinking about taking classes somewhere and you don't know anything about the teacher or the studios, ask around and get opinions from other dancers before signing up for classes. Hint: Look for someone whose dancing you like and ask them where they learned to dance. This page covers mostly places within a few miles of Boston, though it might stretch all the way to I-495. If you're looking for something in your area (outside of Boston) and you don't see it here, try looking on the other pages for north, west, south, really west of Boston (Western Mass, 413 area code, etc.). Don't see your favorite studio listed anywhere?

Tell them to contact dancenet@havetodance.com.

Salsa lessons

<http://salsaboston.com/lessons/>

large variety of Salsa and other Latin dance lessons are offered in the Boston area by individual instructors, professional dance studios, collegiate ballroom clubs, and nightclubs. For first time beginners, I suggest checking out one of the clubs that offers introductory lessons. You can read more about this in the Beginner's Guide to Salsa in Boston

Hip Hop
